

Interfaith Events

4/14/2011

Events in Memphis of interest to the interfaith community, events where you can learn about other faiths or meet people with an interest in other faiths. This is just the next few days, later events are listed online.

All the information and links here, and more, can be found at <http://MemphisIRG.org> or phone 327-9735. E-mail us at admin@memphisirg.org with questions or suggestions.

A great many churches have many events April 17-23, "Holy Week", ending with Easter on April 24. Passover runs for 8 days beginning at sunset on Monday, April 18; synagogues often run dinner programs and special services. One consequence is a shortage of specifically "interfaith" programs.

By all means look at church and synagogue websites for details; it would feel presumptuous to make suggestions here although we'll have some on our website for informational purposes.

A new edition will appear when I get a few more things to put on it; keep me informed.

The Calvary Episcopal Lenten Lecture Series: Noon every weekday. 102 N. 2nd St.

Last two talks are April 14 and 15. Talks at noon, lunch available afterwards.

See <http://www.calvarymemphis.org/news/lentenseries.htm#Preachers>

At that web address you can listen to or download most of the talks - click on the talk name in the list of speakers.

April 14-16 and 21-23, 8 PM, Bat Boy, The Musical. U of Memphis Theater,

Saturday April 16, 6:00 PM: discussion before the performance, with refreshments. Theatre Bldg, Central Ave.

In this musical, a half-boy/half-bat is discovered living in a cave. How will the people react to his efforts to fit in? It raises questions of stereotypes, nationality, creed, etc. and "the moral obligation we have to all our brothers and sisters", according to the flier. Info / reservations 678-2576.

April 17, 2 PM, Brooks Museum. Lecture.

Redefining Power, Redefining Beauty: Veiling in the African Diaspora.

April 28, 7:30 PM Thursday. Vocal Concert, free, Temple Israel. "St. Petersburg to Broadway"

Carl Ratner sings songs by Russian and Russian-American composers.

May 1, Sunday, 4 PM - Jewish Community Center. Yom HaShoah
